Agency Name: One World Market

Contact Information: Ingrid McWilliams layla1017@aol.com

Description of Need: One World Market (formerly Ten Thousand Villages), the nonprofit fair-trade store on the Commons, will hold our 15th Fair Trade Oriental Rug Event in August. We will have approximately 350 rugs from small runners to large dining room/living room sizes. These heirloom-quality rugs are handmade by artisan groups in Pakistan, using no child labor, who are paid a fair wage for their labors to cover housing, food, education, and medical needs. This program works with over 800 families in approximately 100 villages and provides those involved a means to support their families when there are few other opportunities.

We will need 10 people each day; refreshments will be provided. For those students who want to feel like their labor is making an impact to help those less fortunate, this is a good avenue to pursue.

Dates: Wednesday, August 22, 5:00 at Saint Catherine of Siena Parish Hall, 309 Siena Drive, off Hanshaw Road.

Sunday, August 26, 4:00 at Saint Catherine of Siena Parish Hall, 309 Siena Drive, off Hanshaw Road.
